This weekend is aimed entirely at the beginner and improver Line Dancer! An invitation to join us on our popular weekend breaks! We are not just a Line Dance Class but hopefully that little bit more! So don't hesitate —Read On—and make your booking! You will not regret it!

We are visiting one of our favourite hotels, The Paddocks Hotel on the River Wye at Symonds Yat near Ross. A warm welcome greets you at this family run Hotel set in idyllic surroundings. With unspoilt views of the beautiful English countryside.

Our coach leaves the Fylde Coast early Saturday Morning March 17th 2012 and travels directly to the market town of Ross on Wye allowing you time for lunch before arriving at the hotel mid afternoon. *You will be greeted with a warm welcome by the Paddock's friendly staff. After a quick check-in. (All rooms are en-suite equipped with T.V & welcome refreshment tray) you will have time to relax or have a wander to view the beautiful scenery & River Wye. After your Sherry reception & evening meal will be your 1st nights Line Dancing.. Only Easy Dances will be played!

Sunday 18th March:- After a full English breakfast
An optional day trip to the Regency Spa Town of Cheltenham .

Dress in Black and White for our Regency Theme Night!

It'll be a classic evening

Monday 18th March:- Return home after breakfast to arrive late afternoon.

Just to Emphasise this weekend is especially for those who want to dance

Easy Dances!

The hotel is set overlooking the River Wye & is known as a Dancers Paradise!

It has a sprung Maplewood dance floor & boasts to be one of the largest in the country
