Join our return trip to the Edwardian Spa resort of Scarborough. The jewel of the East Coast. A warm welcome awaits you at the Historic Royal Hotel situated in the centre of town overlooking the fabulous south bay. Dating from 1830 the hotel with its grand imposing architecture, including the famous staircase and atrium, still bears all the hallmarks of the Regency period.

Friday 18th May— We will leave your local pick up and travel to Scarborough stopping at the White Centre for lunch where you may find a Rose bargain or two. After arriving at the hotel when after checking into your room you will have free time to relax, have a swim or a short walk along the promenade saving some energy for your evenings dancing. All rooms have en suite bathrooms, TV, direct dial telephones, refreshment tray, hair dryer, free WiFi & free use of the Leisure facilities.

up and Rose bargain checking have a swim

Saturday 19th May.— After Full English Breakfast free time to spend at your leisure in Scarborough or visit nearby Whitby. Saturday evening will be our usual Theme Night:-

“Oh I do like to be beside the seaside”-

We are going back in time to holidays gone by! Kiss me Quick hats, Bathing Belles, not forgetting the bingo on the Prom, candy floss and Ice Cream. But please no knitted swim suits! No need to bring a deck chair but a towel for your seat will be required!

Sunday 20th May— We will depart after breakfast for the historic city of York. With plenty of time for sightseeing and lunch. We are due to arrive back home early evening.

There is something for everyone in Scarborough! From crabs tails, Fish and Chips on the promenade to High St. Shopping in the town centre.

This hotel is ideally situated in the town centre over looking South Bay and all its amenities.

Deposits are now being taken- £20 secures your room.

Balances to be paid by 1st April 2012.
